

New and attractive portrait of Archduke Felix-Frederic, the third son born to the ex-Empress Zita of Austria in the chateau of Schoenbrunn, May 31, 1916. The imperial family is now in exile in Switzerland.

Copyright, Keystone View Co.

Above—Portrait of the ci-devant Crown Prince Franz Joseph Otto, eldest son of the abdicated Emperor of Austria. He has eleven other Christian names and is nine years old.

Copyright, Keystone View Co.

Archduke Charles Louis, fourth son of former Emperor Charles and Empress Zita of Austria, born at Baden, near Vienna, March 10, 1918.

Copyright, Keystone View Co.

Suffrage memorial of Susan B. Anthony, Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Lucretia Mott, to be presented to the nation next Tuesday. Speaker Gillette, who will make the speech of acceptance, is shown talking to Mrs. Adelaide Johnson, the sculptress.

Harris & Ewing.

"Milae of Kromerz," third in the Alfons Mucha series of Czecho-Slovak paintings now on view in the Brooklyn Institute.

Alfons Mucha, Bohemian artist, who gained international fame for his posters and who is working on a series of paintings depicting the history of Czecho-Slovakia.

At right—"John Huss Preaching in the Chapel of Bethlehem," one of the great Mucha historical paintings, the gift of Charles R. Crane of Chicago to Czecho-Slovakia.

An interview with Mucha will be found in the Magazine Section to-day.

Soon to be seen in the White House: One of Mrs. Harding's tea gowns. It is of mauve chiffon with gold lace and green tassels in front, a silver and mauve sash and black and green lace on the back. The train is of mauve chiffon.

Wide World.

Mrs. Irvine L. Lenroot, the new president of the Congressional Club in Washington. The wife of the Wisconsin Senator will hold the office for a year.

Copyright, Harris & Ewing.

